EXPERIENCE

Technical Lead / Senior Wordpress Developer | 2022-NOW

Brain Computing S.p.A. | Remote - Lisbon, Portugal

As a Technical Lead, I oversee the development of high-quality WordPress websites while remaining actively involved in hands-on coding. I work closely with clients to gather requirements and translate them into scalable, maintainable solutions. Beyond development, I optimize workflows, establish best practices, and mentor junior developers to elevate team efficiency. Balancing leadership and technical execution, I personally develop complex websites, ensuring high performance, security, and seamless user experience.

Wordpress Developer | 2019-2022

Mama Industry | Hybrid - Rome, Italy

Joined as a core early-stage employee, directly contributing to the startup's growth by architecting scalable WordPress solutions. Successfully delivered custom, responsive layouts using Elementor Pro and facilitated cross-departmental collaboration to align technical development with broader company objectives.
